

Tess Olsen-Rong – December 2016
Tess.Olsen-rong@affirmativeim.com

An aerial photograph of a lush green landscape. In the center, a white wind turbine stands on a small patch of land. To the left, a large herd of black and white cows is grazing in a field. The landscape is divided into various green fields by dark, winding lines representing roads or fences. The overall scene is a mix of nature and sustainable technology.

Sustainability principles form the core of our investment process and define our approach. They are not a mere overlay onto an existing investment platform.

Verification & Scoring

AIM scores each of the 18 sub-criteria in the proprietary framework to determine 6 average criteria scores. This formulates the Overall Sustainability and Credit Risk Score for the impact bond programme, which determines which tier the bond programme belongs in.

AIM only accepts impact bond programmes or pure-play issuers which achieve an Overall AIM Score at/or above 3 and groups issuers and/or bond frameworks into 3 investible tiers.

In-house and external technical experts provide insight into the scoring process. Issuers may have more than one impact bond programme, all of which are assessed independently.

AIM INVESTMENT UNIVERSE

SUPERIOR
